Jeffrey Patterson elected managing partner of Allen Matkins law firm

Jeffrey Patterson

Jeffrey R. Patterson has been elected Allen Matkins' new managing partner, effective July 1.

Patterson has played key leadership roles within the firm throughout his career. He is only the third managing partner since the firm's founding in 1977.

Patterson began his career at Allen Matkins in 1986 in its Orange County office, moved to the San Diego office in 1990, and for the majority of his career practiced as a business litigator, bankruptcy and creditors' rights attorney. He has served as the operating partner of the firm's San Diego office since 2011 and as the firm-wide general counsel and on the firm's Management Committee since 2012. He received his juris doctorate from University of Southern California Gould School of Law, and bachelor's degree in economics and drama from Duke University. He is consistently named to Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America, and is the lead vocalist and keyboardist in a classic rock band.

Patterson succeeds David Osias who served as managing partner since 2012. Osias, also based in the firm's San Diego office, will resume his water rights and receivership practices.
